

September 14, 2011

Course of action for research

To DO's

1. Schedule interviews with People with bp or having experience with persons close to them with bp.
 - May also create an online survey so that it is anonymous.
 - Individuals for interviews.
experience with a F=females; M=male;
S=self
SaraMae=F, Karen D.=F, Karyn P.=S, Marysia=M, Joann=M/juvenile,
Connor=S, Rita=F (my mother)

2. Determine questions for interviews/survey

3. Summarize results and begin transferring the data to art media.

4. Artists for inspiration:
 - Chiharu Shiotu, traps subject in a weave
 - Laura Ellen Bacon, weaves herself in to a room
 - Nathalie M. (taught my summer class)Her weather data sculpture at Fuller Craft Mus.
 - Alyson Shotz, wonderful use of negative space and form as it relates to gravity
 - John McQueen- for technique: plaits over and on molds
 -  create a library of images with notes

5. Readings:
 - Already purchased book Nathalie M. suggested: The Art of Basketry by Keri Loring
 - Unholy Ghost (library?)

6. Documentaries?

